THE COUNTDOWN TO THE BRUNSWICK SHOW IS ON

Judy Talbot, OAM

All roads will lead to Brunswick on Saturday, October 22nd for the biggest one-day Show in the State, with the theme this year promoting 'Rural Emergency Services'.

Many hours of voluntary work have gone into the planning for the event and also work on the Grounds to ensure all is in readiness for the public to enjoy the Country meets the City.

The Committee is grateful to the many people who come forward to assist on the Friday being Stewards in the Pavilion, and on Show Day with the Judging of cattle, sheep and goats.

The horses in action will again be held on Sunday allowing the Oval to be utilized for displays of Emergency Vehicles and other attractions, and the Grand Parade of vehicles later in the afternoon.

The Tom Pearson Pavilion will again be a focal point for Craft, Patchwork Quilts, Sewing, Flowers and Children's Exhibits.

Woodwork, Photography Art, Vegetables and Lego will be in the Recreation Centre.

The region's best poultry can be viewed next Door in the Ridley Pavilion.

At the northern end of the showgrounds and in the cattle complex there is non-stop action in the rings where the best progeny of the South West is displayed.

The Log Chops have an exciting programme of events and always attract a large following. The biggest sideshow alley outside the Perth Royal Show will be a mecca for the young at heart.

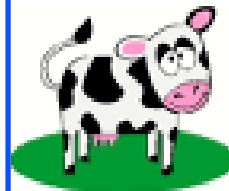

Entertainment will be non-stop throughout the day, with a varied programme of artists and performers.

There will be plenty of food and drink stalls situated around the ground, plus the ever-popular trade displays and small stalls.

The day will conclude with a Fireworks Display but if patrons are still on the ground sideshow alley will continue till late.

Now, all we need is fine weather to ensure the 2022 Show is a huge success.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

JULIANNE HILL

I have been very proud to have been the President of the Brunswick Agricultural Society for the 2022 Annual Brunswick Show.

The Show Committee has seen a number of changes occur this year, with some new faces joining our amazing committee to bring this year's Show to fruition. The Committee works hard to ensure that we bring you, our loyal patrons, a Show that is both entertaining and educational - all while highlighting the amazing town of Brunswick and surrounding areas.

Our rural heritage, as well as the importance of agriculture in enabling our town to thrive, plays a large part in what we bring to you each year. Each year, we have a theme that reflects this importance to us.

It is my privilege to promote 'Rural Emergency Services' as our theme this year. We all know someone that has needed one of these essential services at some time in their lives. This year, the Oval will be full to the brim with many of our local Rural Emergency Services, with monies raised on the day going towards the Royal Flying Doctors who have helped so many over the years they have been in operation.

So, make sure you roam the oval to check out all of those who help serve our community - the RFDS, SES, Bush Fire Brigade, St John Ambulance, Brunswick Fire Brigade, RAC helicopter, and many more.

I would like to thank our committee, our loyal volunteers, sponsors and exhibitors who all make the Brunswick Agricultural Show one of the Harvey Shire's biggest events.

Thank you for once again taking the time to attend our Show; and if you are joining us for the first time, Welcome!

MAGGIE'S MUSINGS

MARGRET CARBONE

It's Showtime! Welcome to this special issue of The Moospaper, celebrating Brunswick Show! Thank you to Brunswick Agricultural Society for a donation towards the publication of the October issue.

Brunswick Show came back bigger and better last year after the cancellation in 2020 due to Covid-19 risks, and this year promises to be another wonderful event! Brunswick Agricultural Society President Julianne Hill and the volunteers have been busily preparing Brunswick showgrounds for 22nd October when the theme "Celebrating Rural Emergency Services" will honour the everyday heroes who keep us safe. There'll be working displays from emergency services, plus attractions including the "Meating Marquee", which returns after a successful debut last year. It's new "Loin Cut" competition is open to lamb, beef, pork and venison entries. The Home Brew winners have been announced, and the winning ale will be on sale at the Show for all to sample! And speaking of brewing, The Moospaper has heard of friendly rivalry brewing amongst locals for the Italian Sausage competition! Entrants in the Ag Challenge will test their boot-throwing skills, and the Lions Club volunteers are again calling for donations for the very popular Animal Nursery. Get your entries ready for the hall sections including cooking, crafts, art, photography, vegetables and produce, children's exhibits... the list goes on! Closing dates and details can be found on the Brunswick Show website and in the schedule booklet, available at local outlets. There'll be a sideshow alley plus free entertainment, and spectacular fireworks display! Show tickets can be purchased online or at the gate. It's been said before... all roads will lead to Brunswick on Brunswick Show day, for what locals proudly call "the biggest one-day show in the Southern Hemisphere"!

Brunswick will also host other events in October, with Harvey-Brunswick-Leschenault Football Club's Presentation Evening set for 7th October. The monthly pub quiz at Brunswick Tavern continues, with the next quiz night on Wednesday 26th of October. Saturday 29 October will see the "Labyrinth Masquerade Ball" at Brunswick Town Hall, kindly organised by Johanna and Glenn Scott as a fundraiser for "Pankind", the Australian pancreatic cancer foundation. It promises to be a wonderful night of masks, costumes and dancing! Book your tickets on the Eventbrite website or check out the event's Facebook page.

We end this month's column with words of sincere gratitude and respect to our sovereign of the last 70 years, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, who passed away on 8 September, aged 96. Many locals, whether royals fans or not, have commented to The Moospaper that the Queen ruled with grace, a sense of duty and a Christian attitude, admired by all. May she rest in peace. Australia declared a public holiday on 22nd September, a national day of mourning to remember the Queen, and services were held in Brunswick around that time. We now join the commonwealth in welcoming King Charles III.

Don't you just LOVE Brunswick?!

CELEBRATING RURAL EMERGENCY SERVICES

Ken Hart

The call went out in early February from the Brunswick Agricultural Society President Julianne Hill, the theme for this year's show would be 'Rural Emergency Services'.....with this call reaching all 8 services. Roll forward to October 2022 and we are all ready to showcase the people, services and operational capabilities that keep our communities safe in times of need.

When visiting the Show Day this year ensure you make your way to the football oval arena, here you will find each Emergency Service on show; Agencies on site are:

- St John Ambulance
- Bush Fire Service
- Western Australia Police
- Volunteer Fire and Rescue Service
- State Emergency Service
- Volunteer Marine Search and Rescue
- RAC Helicopter
- Royal Flying Doctor Service

Each of the Emergency Services will be providing demonstrations on vehicle operation, call-out procedures, community safety and operational procedures. Keep an eye on the Show day program for confirmed times for the featured displays by the BFS, SJA and VFRS. Kids and adults alike can enjoy the following demonstrations and activities:

St John Ambulance - Vintage Ambulance display, Operational Ambulance displays, CPR practice, CPR and Defibrillation demonstrations, Kiddie Ambulance, Colour in competition, snake bite bandage giveaway, Volunteer Recruitment, First Aid training information. Medical Treatment onsite.

Bush Fire Brigade - Operational Fire Fighting Unit displays, Hose and water target shooting, Bush Fire Readiness display, Display on the new - National Bush Fire Rating System, Bush Fire Brigade - Operational Fire Fighting Unit displays, Hose and water target shooting, Bush Fire Readiness display, Display on the new - National Bush Fire Rating System.

Western Australia Police - Operational vehicles on display, Community Safety awareness, Drink Driving Awareness.

Volunteer Fire and Rescue - Operational Vehicle displays, Breathing Apparatus displays, Vehicle cut up demonstration x2, Smoke alarm promotion.

State Emergency Service - Operational Vehicle displays, rope rescue information, operational equipment demonstrations.

Volunteer Marine Search and Rescue Service - Rescue Tender display, recruitment information, EPERB information. Radio usage information. RAC Helicopter - HELICOPTER Simulator onsite. Royal Flying Doctor Service - RFDS Aircraft simulator, RFDS WA information.

As you can see the display precinct will be packed with vehicles, displays and much activity for the entire family to enjoy. See you at the show.

THE MEATING MARQUEE

There's nothing like the smell of a BBQ in the evening to let you know the warmer weather is here.

The aroma conjures up memories of summer evenings, family gatherings, delicious food and drinks and, basically, good times.

Well, brace yourself for an onslaught of sensory delight as you enter THE MEATING MARQUEE at the Show this year!

The 'Meating Marquee' aims to showcase Western Australian produce with a wide variety of products representing 'meat' in WA.

The Marquee is an interactive venue where visitors can watch the produce being prepared, taste the produce and make purchases.

A show favourite from last year was the Harvey Beef Boning Competition which will again be happening from 10 am in the Meating Marquee. Don Hancey will also be at the show hosting food conversations at 1:00pm and 2:00 pm.

There is a new awards program in 2022, as part of the Meating Marquee. This year the Meating Marquee will be hosting the 'Branded Loin Cut' and 'Branded Value Add' product awards.

There is also an opportunity to break a Guinness World Record for the most amount of sausages eaten in 1 minute and the World's biggest charity sausage auction will take place at 4:00 pm will all proceeds of the auction going to The Royal Flying Doctors Services.

To find out information on the Meating Marquee or to enter the awards head to the Brunswick Show website; www.brunswickshow.com.au

QUALITY TRADE CATTLE SECTION AT THE SHOW

Rodney Galati

Another exciting year awaits us in the Quality Trade Cattle section at the 2022 Brunswick Show.

We have changed the schedule a few times over the past 7 years. We found it extremely important to stay relevant to the industry and its requirements. This included tweaks with grid specifications mainly with respect to weights but the biggest change has been with the calf classes.

We previously had milk calves off their mums and mostly sold directly to butcher shops. This demand has severely decreased as has our commitment to best welfare practices by not having unweaned animals in the public domain. This in turn has increased the support from graziers and feed lotters.

We currently have close to $16000 in prizes as well as thousands of dollars worth of free transport from Mitchell's Livestock for all successful purchasers.

FLORAL ART

Jean Shine

The term "Floral Art" has evolved over many years, the showing of beautiful blooms at the Brunswick Show has been one of the attractions in the pavilion since the 1930s. Vases, bowls, and single specimens

The 1960/70 floral art section was added to the schedule.

Floral Art, is a floral design in an art form where the medium is the plant material. Artistic design is a statement of individual creativity using the elements and principles of design. The designer strives to attain the qualities of beauty, simplicity, expression and harmony in all designs.

Some designs are definitions with direction and rules that outline the creation, others are Interpretative where the designer translates a message of the subject title.

Floral Art is evolving; modern designs of the 20th century developed in 1960/1970. European Design developed in 1980/ 1990 and Contemporary design began in early 2000 and is still A way of Floral Art today.

As society is adopting a sustainable lifestyle, likewise with floral art Sustainability and recycling is being adopted.

Be sure to stop by the Tom Pearson Pavilion to take a look at this years entries into the floral art section.

K9 CONNECTION DOG AGILITY

You've probably seen agility on television or perhaps you've been lucky enough to attend a local agility trial in person. No doubt you thought it looked like a fun activity to do with your dog. Well, it is! Dog agility is one of the fastest-growing canine sports because it's exciting, challenging, and a whole lot of fun.

We are delighted to have K9 Connections at the 2022 Brunswick Show. K9 Connections is a locally based dog training school that, among other services, runs an agility team.

Their highly trained dogs & handlers love showing the crowds their skills on the agility course. These dogs are trained to work under distractions at events and are sure to entertain and amaze you with their abilities. K9 Connections will have several demonstrations during the day in the main arena. Check the Programme on the day for show times.

TOM PEARSON PAVILION

Vegetables, Flowers, Cooking, Preserves, Italian Sausage, Amateur Brew, Hand Needlework, Crochet & Knitting, Big Kids Lego, Crafts, Art, Children' sections, Children's Cooking, quilting, woodworking, and Photography are what you can expect in the Tom Pearson Pavilion this year.

This year's Show theme "Celebrating Rural Emergency Services" will be showcased in different sections of the Pavilion.

Last year saw fewer entries in the floral sections due to the weather which we hope will not be a problem again this year.

Chief Pavilion Steward Wendy Dickinson said "We encourage everyone to give it a go in entering the sections of the Tom Pearson Pavilion and if they are unsure they can contact the stewards of the sections or the Secretary who will pass the enquiries onto the relevant steward."

There will be no trophy presentation, instead awards will be presented with prize money when recipients are claiming their prize money from the windows of the office. Exhibitors are requested to collect their entries on show day between 5 and 5.30 pm and remember that claim cards must be presented to claim prize money and exhibits.

All information regarding completion sections can be found on the Brunswick Show website including entry forms.

THE BRUNSWICK HEN'S SHED

Kate Bufton

The Australian Men's Shed Association has been a safe haven for Australian men for decades, providing a supportive space for blokes to break social isolation and be productive. Since its opening in 2020, the Brunswick Men's shed has been a cornerstone of the community and now in 2022, their community has expanded to include South West women, with the creation of the Brunswick Hen's Shed.

Under the guidance of a handful of knowledgeable Men's Shed members the Hen's have been learning hands-on techniques many have never had the opportunity to experience. Recently our enthusiastic hens have been focusing on learning key woodworking skills and the safe usage of power tools.

Our ladies are putting newfound skills into action with a range of community-focused and personal projects. The Hen's shed is a fantastic way for adult women of all ages to decompress away from the demands of daily life in a supportive and inclusive environment.

On a personal note, the hens shed has given me a much-needed break away from my young family, allowing me time to do something just for me. The chance to build and create things has given me a fantastic sense of accomplishment with a wonderful group of diverse women. Separate to the men's group sessions, our ladies meet Saturday afternoons from 12:30 and Wednesdays from 9am, new members are welcome.

Congratulations

NEW ARRIVALS IN BRUNSWICK JUNCTION

They say that all good things come in threes, well we think we might have blown that theory, with all that is set to happen this month, not least the biggest and best Brunswick Show (22nd). The other dates for the diary are the community Quiz night, on 26th October at Brunswick Tavern and then 2 new regular youth clubs starting in Term 4.

CoderDojo is one of these clubs which is focused on developing computer programming skills, with kids creating games. The spaces are limited for this with only 7 computers available, so if you are interested, come and try a taster session on Wednesday 5th October @ 1pm, bookings are essential for the club which will run weekly after school.

Next up is the Booster Club that is open to primary-aged children and will feature as a one on one session with a volunteer mentor to help build confidence and skills over a range of subjects. This will be through fun activities and games to develop strategies to problem solve as well as improve knowledge and understanding. Join us for a taster session on Thursday 6th October @ 1pm or sign up for the club which will commence the first week back at school on Thursday 13th October @ 3.15pm spaces will be limited, so first in, best dressed.

Both of these clubs are offered for free as part of our youth program funding, supported by the Shire of Harvey. For any further information, please contact us 9726 1452.

CLARABELLE THE COW

Clarabelle the pink cow was introduced to the show last year as a fundraiser for Solaris Cancer Care.

Auctioned for $5,000 grandfather-grandson duo Mario and James Giacci of MGM Bulk placed the winning bid on Clarabelle the cow on Show day.

James Giacci, marketing manager of the family-owned business, said that moment was the genesis of the Cow for Cancer project.

"We had one of our pink 60-metre ultra-quad road trains on display there. We were working closely with Solaris [Cancer Care centres] on the day to try to raise some money for them," he said.

"They were auctioning off this life-size fibreglass cow and we were the highest bidder on the day. That essentially meant that we got to keep that cow for the next 12 months and we could do anything with it," he said.

Having just completed a 4,000-kilometre journey around Western Australia, Clarabelle has raised over $118,000 for cancer care.

"It [the idea] was to take this cow on a 4000-kilometre road trip around Western Australia working with Solaris Cancer Care along the way, trying to raise some money and obviously highlight the support that they offer people who are going through cancer treatment," Mr Giacci said.

Clarabelle will be returned to the show grounds ahead of the show where she will be auctioned off again to raise money for the Royal Flying Doctors service.

The Auction will take place at 2:00 pm at the Alan Evans Selling complex.

ROYAL FLYING DOCTOR SERVICE NAMED BENEFICIARY OF THE 2022 BRUNSWICK SHOW

The Brunswick Agricultural Society is proud to announce that for 2022, the beneficiary of the Brunswick Show fundraising efforts will be the Royal Flying Doctor Service (RFDS).

The RFDS has been a pinnacle of Western Australian rural emergency services for 90 years.

Brunswick Agricultural Society President Julianne Hill said "There are countless stories of help and we all know someone in our lives that has used the RFDS."

My family has personally been in a situation where the RFDS has flown in to take my Mum to hospital, saving her life. Particularly in remote areas, the RFDS has been invaluable in helping save lives in WA. In fact, the RFDS has helped 9,771 Western Australians just like my Mum, who otherwise may not be with us today.

Not only do the RFDS provide emergency services, but they also provide Telehealth, dental services, and Rural & Remote GP services.

There are so many stories of RFDS changing people's lives and we are honoured to be able to play a small part in supporting them.

Thank You

The Members and Committee of the Brunswick Agricultural Society (Inc.) wish to sincerely thank sponsors for their cash and voucher donations. The success of the Show relies heavily on this support.

We hope that all those associated with the Show will continue their support in the future.

Thank You VOLUNTEERS!!!

The Brunswick Show is run largely by volunteers. We thank them for their time and dedication, and we ask that you show them the courtesy they deserve on Show day.

BREAKING INTO NEW TERRITORY

Chevon Greenhalgh

Breaking into new territory, Brunswick staged its first Antique fair and Auction event on Saturday, 17th September 2022. Held at the Tom Pearson Pavilion on the Ag Showgrounds, volunteers had spent a busy week, with all the preparations.

Open to the public on the Friday before, spectators and potential buyers were able to preview the auction items and to register as a bidder. Investing a lot of time and care with setting up the items to be auctioned, the array of items ranged from silverware to furniture, crockery and cutlery from different periods and styles. Laid out in lots on tables and positioned around the pavilion for people to easily wander around, buyers could peruse the items of interest.

Antique and collectables were also on display for sale by stall holders and included jewellery, metals and car paraphernalia, there was something for everyone.

Starting promptly at 9am, the auctioneer, Troy Brown, outlined the procedures of the day, together with the conditions and terms for the items to be sold - with over 500 lots this was not going to be over in hurry. Working through each lot, the bidders kept a careful eye on items of interest, while keeping up with the pace of bidding - some items were highly sought after and attracted a large crowd gathering while others were either snapped up as a bargain or rolled over to the next auction. Stretching into the early afternoon, finally, the successful bidders walked away with their much prized possessions. What an amazing event with a great many deals to be scored. Thanks to all involved and we hope a further opportunity might be organised again next year.
