EASTER COMPETITION

A Simmental bull recently made history at the WA Livestock Salesmen's Association Annual Supreme Sale in Brunswick on the 16th of March when it fetched an eye watering price of $82,000, exceeding the previous record of $72,000...

Tom Marshall of Cranbrook paid the hefty sum for the animal offered up for sale by Boyanup sellers Tony & Loreen Kitchen who were in shock after the successful bid.

There was plenty of other action on the day, and it is said to be one of the most popular events in the Association's history over the last few years.

Congratulations to everyone involved for putting on a splendid event.

MARGRET CARBONE

Happy Easter! We hope you enjoy April with The Moospaper. For some Easter fun, look out for the easy Word Sleuth in this issue!

After Easter we will look forward to Anzac Day, when we remember and honour those who fought for our freedom. Thank you to the local volunteers who stage the Brunswick Anzac Day service every year. We are fortunate that the small community of Brunswick is an active one, and thanks to the Shire of Harvey, residents now have an opportunity to put forward suggestions on our town's future. The Shire is seeking ideas on what we like about Brunswick, and on what changes could be made for improvement. Ideas and suggestions will go towards the "Brunswick Junction Place Plan", a project to create the best community possible by working together. To get involved, visit <https://haveyoursay.harvey.wa.gov.au/brunswick-place>. Complete the five-minute survey and have some fun with the interactive map! On Friday 22 April, all are invited to go along to a community workshop, time and place to be advised. This is our chance to put ideas forward and have our say about our beautiful town!

We at The Moospaper wish everyone a Happy Easter. Although the Covid-19 pandemic is still causing restrictions, and there are currently a high number of cases in WA, most people in our corner of the world have been lucky enough to continue relatively normal everyday living. With state borders now open, there will be many reunions of family and friends this Easter, and we wish you all a safe and joyous time. Looking forward to seeing you all at the Brunswick Anzac service!

Don't you just LOVE Brunswick?!

FOOTBALL SEASON KICKS OFF

Harvey-Brunswick-Leschenault Football Club is back to business for another season. The club enjoyed a good season in 2021, with highlights including the well-deserved induction of Brunswick-raised Graham Jeffery into the South-West Football League's Hall of Fame. This was followed by the news that another HBL product, Brady Hough, had been selected to play for West Coast Eagles in 2022. The talented 19-year-old played his first Eagles game against Gold Coast Suns at Perth's Optus Stadium, giving a solid performance in round one of the Australian Football League season. The talented 19-year-old is the grandson of Brunswick's Norma and Ron (deceased) Morgan, and his dedication has seen him realise his dream of playing for the club which he and his family have supported since childhood.

HBL's first home game will be in Round 2 against Donnybrook on Sunday 3rd April, with a return to Brunswick Oval on Saturday 9th April as HBL host Augusta-Margaret-River. Although training will not be held in Brunswick this season due to the Brunswick Oval's lights replacement project, clubrooms and kiosk and bar will still operate as normal on game day. The Moospaper joins the community in wishing the Lions a great season!

COMMUNITY GARDEN UPDATE

Tina Wallis

The core community garden crew may be few in number, but are big in heart and welcomed the kind and generous offer from Bunnings to help get the winter veggies in the garden off to a great start.

Having prepared the veggie beds in advance, Coordinator Kristy Gibson from Activities Department of Bunnings, Australind helped to coordinate the donation of soil and plants to launch the efforts for the upcoming growing season. With a total of 10 beds to prepare and care for, the community garden group are certainly very grateful for this amazing support. Looking forward to nurturing these plants in readiness to make a tasty winter stew with leeks, broccoli, beetroot, sage and thyme, to name a few - you can almost imagine the cooking aromas by the mere mention of them!

We do count ourselves very fortunate, especially when in other parts of the world, there are lot of people, less so. If you would like to either join the group or utilise some of the growing space in the garden, we welcome all local community members to share the opportunity we have here in Brunswick. Kristy enjoys a love of gardening and is planning a return to check up on the plants' progress, so if you'd like to meet and ask her for any tips, we are sure she will be keen to help.

Call us for any further information 9726 1452 or catch up with us for our regular garden meets - every 3rd Saturday of the month at 9am. The garden is open to all, weekdays too!

FLORAL ART IN THE MAKING

Ben Jauncey

Brunswick local, Jean Shine is an internationally renowned floral artist who developed an interest in all things to do with flowers at an early age, thanks to her mother. Encouraged, as a child, to enter floral exhibits into the Brunswick show and winning awards, Jean continued to develop this interest into a passion.

Turning semi-professional, Jean completed a distance learning course and ran a monthly flower arranging club in Brunswick's Town Hall during the early 90's, teaching a small group of what she had learnt and also offered private lessons. Sharing this passion and flair, Jean became a member of the Bunbury floral art group where she continued to develop her skills.

Joining the Floral Art Society of WA in 1996, later renamed the flower design club, Jean went on to gain her judge's certificate in the early 2000s, a qualification recognised by the World Association of Flower Arrangers. Since this time, Jean has completed a number of floral art courses from home and in Perth. Recognition of her work has seen Jean invited to attend international events, including a trip to NZ in 2019. Just prior to the COVID pandemic outbreak, Jean travelled to Palmerston North, where she was quite overwhelmed by the reception of her New Zealand counterparts who delivered a VIP welcome.

When creating a floral art piece, Jean said it can take quite a while from design to creation. "They are normally based on a title or theme and then developed with inspiration and materials" Currently, Jean is working on a theme of 'Green Energy' which is one that has been used previously. When preparing for competitions, Jean says, items are sourced from all over as local ones are not always suitable for the title or theme. She goes on to describe how most events have schedules, workshops and competitions and that you work out what's good for you when selecting what to participate in. Adapting to the changes, competitions of late, have been held virtually, due to COVID restrictions in Australia and around the world.

Jean's reputation for floral art and displays continue to reach far and wide with a recent request from Canada receiving an enquiry for a commission, which she unfortunately had to decline. Amongst her designs, Jean created a dress using eucalyptus leaves which was produced along with matching accessories, this she considers, her most unusual piece.

Currently, Jean is preparing for this year's Perth Garden and Outdoor Living Festival set to take place between 5th and 8th of May, at Langley Park in Perth. Also, we are proud to announce that Jean is set to run an evening workshop here at Brunswick Community Resource Centre on Thursday, 21st April.

In preparation for Anzac Day, you can learn to make your own commemorative wreath, with all materials provided along with delicious snacks and non-alcoholic drinks. For further enquiries and bookings, please call us 9726 1452 or follow the online booking link <https://www.trybooking.com/BXUJR> (event is advertised on page ? and on our website: brunswickwa.com

Jean is keen to share her joy of flowers and plants and to inspire future floral artists, encouraging all to have a go and emphasising, for the upcoming workshop "that wreaths are not just for commemorative events, such as Anzac Day or Christmas time, they also make excellent, everyday floral decorations for your home"

LIBRARY SERVICES HAVE YOUR SAY

Tina Wallis

Did you know that Shire of Harvey are seeking community feedback on library services currently on offer in the local area? They would like to hear from users and non-users on how these services could be improved.

Here in Brunswick, we maintain a small, but well-organised library loan service which is limited, due to space and access to a wider range of resources. We recognise the current catalogue is fairly limited and that, together with a recent interruption to our online loan system, we are not able to meet a preferred standard of service for our library members.

To help develop and build on the existing service, we encourage you to have your say, completing the survey online <https://haveyoursay.harvey.wa.gov.au/library-vision-report> Or if you don't have internet access, please feel welcome to come in to the Resource Centre in Brunswick where we can provide a dedicated computer for this use and/or will be happy to help.

Julianne Hill Wins Seed of Light Award

Ben Jauncey

Julianne Hill, a local independent rural consultant with connections to WA grain growers, is the winner of the Grains Research and Development Corporation "Seed of Light" award for 2022 for the Western region .

The award is presented each year to winners who have made a huge contribution to communicating the outcomes of grains research and development in Western Australia. I had a chance to chat with Juliane via email due to her busy schedule and posed some questions to her.

What did you do in your own words to get the award?

"Well, I think that what I did to get the Seed of Light award, was to just do my best in my job that I could do, and connect with farmers making sure that I listened properly to them. I have been thinking about it a lot, as it was such a surprise to win the award. It is so easy to just do your job, and do the easy bits. It's very hard to do those parts of the job that take that bit more effort, especially when there is no well-worn path forward to achieve the goal that you are trying to get done. So to make sure that you do what farmers really want to see done, you have to be imaginative, dogged and determined, and have respect of the audience. Hopefully I brought some of that to the role. Also, another key part in why my messaging may have been successful, is because I become actively involved in the local rural community in which I live. That is a very important part of living in the country – a commitment to make your area better if you can."

When was it awarded to you?

"It was awarded to me on the first day of the GRDC Research updates in Perth, on February 21st 2022."

Who awarded it to you, and who presented it to you?

"It was awarded to me by GRDC (Grains Research and Development Corporation), by the Chair of the Western Region, Darrin Lee."

What have been some of your past achievements in your industry?

"Hmmm I feel like I am big-headed now. Well I think some of the achievements have been are:

- Buying our own broad acre farm when my husband and I were young and broke
- Being actively involved in small rural communities
- Finalist in the RIRDC Rural Women's award. The Rural Women's Award recognises the vital contribution women make to Western Australia as advocates for rural industries and communities.
- Community Citizen of the Year at the 2022 Australia Day Awards for Brunswick"

FIRE RIPS THROUGH WELLESLEY

Photos by Leesa Sutherland

Western Australia's two new Black Hawk helicopters, Yelka and Florian took to the skies over Brunswick as part of the aerial support during the recent bushfires in Wellesley and Burekup. The two ex-military twin engine aircraft attending are able to carry 4,500 litres of water, refilling in 46 seconds. These amazing photos taken by Leesa Sutherland certainly capture the key role of the aircraft, manoeuvring to refill from a dam on Marriott Road and during take off and landing at the centre of operations on Brunswick's Agricultural Showgrounds.

DAD JOKES

I like telling Dad jokes. Sometimes he laughs!

I used to hate facial hair...but then it grew on me.

I don't trust those trees. They seem kind of shady.

I don't trust stairs. They're always up to something.

What did one hat say to the other? Stay here! I'm going on ahead.

How do you make 7 even? Take away the s.

What does a bee use to brush its hair? A honeycomb!

That car looks nice but the muffler seems exhausted.

Shout out to my fingers. I can count on all of them.

I used to be addicted to soap, but I'm clean now.

I'm afraid for the calendar. Its days are numbered.

My wife said I should do lunges to stay in shape. That would be a big step forward.

I once had a dream I was floating in an ocean of orange soda. It was more of a Fanta sea.

Dear Math, grow up and solve your own problems.

Did you hear about the kidnapping at school? It's okay, he woke up.

Have you ever tried to catch a fog? I tried yesterday but I mist.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Tina Wallis

With such a well-supported event in previous years, the anticipation of a low turnout was a concern for the International Women's Day celebrations in Brunswick this year. Mainly due to the necessary COVID safety practices of social distancing and wearing of masks, with many people feeling it's probably better to stay at home these days. This has been referred to, by some, as FOGO - a 'fear of going out' and impacts events that have either been cancelled or rescheduled to avoid disappointment.

Very pleased to say that, with the amazing support and determination of the Red Cross Volunteers, this was not the case on this occasion. The event was a great success and actually recorded an increase of attendees from last year!

Participants enjoyed a catch up over a delightful Devonshire Cream tea with friends and guest speaker, Charmaine Van Djk from the Shire of Harvey. Charmaine has just joined the Community Development team at the Shire and looks forward to connecting with local community members in Brunswick.

On the topic of the day, Charmaine acknowledged and celebrated the wealth of knowledge and experience shared in the room by all the women who have contributed to the success of their families and in building strong ties within the community. Her own mother had been a role model in fortitude and strength for which Charmaine identifies as a key influence towards building goals for her career and life.

Working for many years in supporting access for those, physically and mentally less able, Charmaine hopes to draw on these skills to help develop improvements for local community members. If there is something that you would like to discuss further with Charmaine, she is happy for you to contact her on charmaine@shireofharvey.com.au

A raffle together with kind donations raised over $800 for the Red Cross March Appeal, demonstrating, again, the generous spirit of all contributors.

Thank you to all the wonderful volunteers who made this a very special event in celebrating International Women's Day 2022!
